

A Gift of Time This Holiday Season

The Holiday Season is upon us. Keeping balanced between career, family, shopping, decorating, holiday functions and Santa's "wish lists" demand even more of a "jingle" to one's busy lifestyle. "Too much to do and little time to do it" takes on an additional and even more stressful meaning...but a new local service offers a solution!

(PRWEB) November 24, 2004 -- Today's world is continually changing, but one thing has not – there are still only 24 hours in a day and you are only one person. “To Do” lists grow as fast as we cross items off. Staying on an even keel daily is hard enough, but added stress of the holidays is even more difficult and can make your life seem like a whirlwind.

EK Errands Express just may be the solution to your holiday needs and your busy lifestyle. It's a "Gift of Time, Right at Your Fingertips!" EK Errands Express offers a wide variety of personal services for busy individuals and professionals as well as businesses services to meet needs of busy lifestyles - on a daily basis and this Holiday Season.

Traveling out of town for the holidays? Have pets to be cared for or worry about the security of your home in your absence? Grocery shopping for the party you are hosting or family get together? Holiday cards to prepare? Gift shopping and/or wrapping to do? Holiday gifts to be delivered to your clients? Packages to ship or bills to be paid?

Personalized services are fast becoming something people can't live without. Business services are popular because they save valuable time and money -- employees can concentrate on business issues without the worry of day-to-day office needs. “EK Errands Express will take care of those time consuming errands so you can enjoy your holiday season,” says Jackie Murphy, a seasoned business professional who worked in the legal field for the past 23 years. "I understand the demands of career and family responsibility on an everyday basis and especially during the holiday season."

Dr. Suzette Nikas, D.D.S., of Carmel, IN has benefited from services of EK Errands Express and states because of Jackie's background, she felt she could trust her. She has been very pleased with her services.

Mark Roberts, Esquire, Murphy's former employer, uses her services and states "she's got such great drive and energy and knowledge from her many years of being a legal assistant and I know she will do a terrific job. She's up to the challenge."

Another of Murphy's clients, Alice Merrick has known Jackie for many years. Her husband has Alzheimer's disease and she has to be with him constantly, which makes running errands and grocery shopping difficult. She has been working with Murphy for several months. She states, "I don't know what I would do without her."
